

Discipling 101

Presentation Example

Discipling 101 is an inspiring, motivating and challenging story of how one man, touched by God, has affected the lives of hundreds by simply obeying the call. “Go and make disciples” is a command given to all followers of Christ, not just a select few. Below is a simple way to introduce the topic to a men’s group and solicit a call to action.

- Most churches have a regular men’s breakfast or Bible study. At one of those functions take the opportunity to show the full-length version of the movie, it’s about 25 minutes.

At the end of the movie, hand out a card or sheet of paper with 3 questions:

1. Have you ever been disciplined in the manner presented in the movie?
2. Would you like to participate in a project as either a disciple or a mentor?
3. Would you be willing to commit to a 90-day agreement with one other man to learn how to grow in Christ?

- Ask the men to include their name, phone, and email. Collect the cards. You now have a list of all those that would consider being involved in one-on-one discipleship, either in the mentor or disciple category. You will need to make the judgement call on who fits where.

There are several resources we suggest for use in one-on-one men’s discipleship, you will see them listed on the Discipling 101 Home Page.
